

Subject: Request to Attend Black Hat Europe 2017 Conference

Dear [decision maker name],

I'm writing to request your approval for me to attend the Black Hat Europe Information Security Conference to be held December 4-7, 2017 in London, United Kingdom. This annual event offers up to four full days of learning, networking, and skill building. The Conference (<https://www.blackhat.com/eu-17/>) brings together some of the greatest researchers and instructors from around the world, providing security information in a completely vendor-neutral environment.

With your approval to attend, I'll have the opportunity to:

Expand my knowledge – Black Hat Briefings gathers well-respected security professionals to speak candidly about the problems businesses and Governments face, as well as the solutions to those problems. I'll have the chance to see visionary keynote speakers and get up to speed on the latest trends from industry leaders. Black Hat remains the best and biggest event of its kind, unique in its ability to define tomorrow's information security landscape. Black Hat is where the absolutely latest attack and defense research is released; I am particularly excited about [select something from <https://www.blackhat.com/eu-17/briefings/schedule/index.html>]

Learn new skills – This year's Trainings offer the essential knowledge and skills needed to defend our enterprise against today's most ominous security threats. Black Hat Europe 2017 brings together the best minds from around the world to provide a comprehensive and unique curriculum covering a broad spectrum of information security topics. In fact, many of the Trainings offered are exclusive to Black Hat and will be offered nowhere else this year. Trainings cover cutting-edge issues and the very latest tools in the space– for example [select the training you seek from <https://www.blackhat.com/EU-17/training/index.html>, you may also wish to reference why you seek that particular instructor]

Meet security professionals – With more than 1,600 information security professionals from around the world, this is an opportunity to expand our company's network and gain perspective from both the public and private sectors. Between the ground-breaking Trainings and Briefing sessions, I'll network with peers, clients, researchers, consultants and providers. I'll also have the opportunity to evaluate the latest security solutions on the market in the Business Hall.
